A TERRIBLE DISASTER.

AN EXCURSION TRAIN PLUNGES THROUGH A BRIDGE.

Two Hundred People Killed and Many Others Injured—The Wreck Takes Fire and a Horrible Holocaust Occurs—A List of the Dead as Far as Learned.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 12.—For some days past the Toledo, Peoria & Western railroad has advertised an excursion train to run to Niagara Falls and back at reduced rates. The great heat here and the industry with which the excursion was advertised brought it to the notice of everybody and a large number of citizens from this and surrounding towns availed themselves of it. When the train pulled out last night there were twelve coaches filled.

Superintendent E. N. Armstrong accompanied the party in his private coach, and this was coupled on next to the baggage car. Accompanying him were Mrs. H. D. Gould and daughter Nellie, Mrs. Parker and several others, wives and relatives of officials of the road. A large crowd assembled to see them off, and as they pulled out of the station it was noticed that the train was a double-header, that is, that there was an engine behind assisting the one in front by pushing. Nothing more was heard from the train until this morning at 8 o'clock, when a dispatch was received that it had gone through a bridge at Chataworth, and that one hundred people were killed and as many were badly injured. The union depot was thronged at an early hour this morning with friends and relatives of those who were on the train. The excitement was intense.

It was reported that Will O. Clark, of the Peoria house, and his wife were among the killed, and that Mrs. H. D. Gould and daughter had been taken out of the wreck dead, that Armstrong was instantly killed, and that the wreck had taken fire and burned up dozens of people who were otherwise uninjured. Amidst the confusion and excitement better news came in slowly. It was learned that Armstrong was safe, together with every one in his car excepting Mrs. Parker, who had her ankle injured. Neither Mrs. Gould nor daughter are injured at all, and many who were reported dead are uninjured.

The trouble seems to be that the bridge over the Vermilion river was set on fire by the flames that have been raging lately and that the stringers were so weakened that they let the bridge down in the bed of the stream with all the cars.

An old Toledo, Peoria & Western conductor named George W. Scott who left here at 2 o'clock this morning has just telegraphed that over 100 are killed, but that no one in the sleepers are injured. This is regarded as authentic. No names can be obtained. Engineer Clintock was killed. The wreck is about three miles from the station.

A train of twelve coaches of wounded reached Peoria at 2 o'clock. Over one hundred are still at Chataworth in the town hall, school house and on the platform. All but five sleepers went through the bridge.

The Illinois Central railroad officials in this city say the train was drawn by two engines, and as they are informed consisted of fifteen sleepers. It went through the bridge, two miles west of Piper City, and about half way between Chataworth and Gilman. The second engine broke through and went down, taking the cars with it.

The Wagner sleeping car office, at the Lake Shore depot, has information that four of its cars were burned up, but they do not know how many passengers were killed or injured, but the number is undoubtedly large.

The bridge through which the cars went was a small one. It had been partially burned which had weakened it. Ten coaches had either gone through to the bed of the stream, or were piled up in promiscuous heaps crosswise and lengthwise on the track. So far seventy bodies have been recovered and none have been taken from the cars underneath, and not even a sound can be heard from them. It is feared that all in those cars are dead. The number of killed will reach 200. The wounded, as far as can be ascertained, will number 150.

Among the dead are the following: Annie Zimmerman, of Peoria; a baby of Joe Neal, of Peoria; Edward McClintock, engineer of Engine 15, roasted alive.

Among the injured are: J. E. Dechman, of Peoria, slightly; Miss Pearl Adams, of Peoria; Mrs. Kittie Welsh, of Peoria, ribs broken; Robert Zimmerman, of Peoria, badly hurt; Miss Mary McVoy, of Peoria, badly hurt; Mrs. Joseph Neal, of Peoria, leg broken; E. A. Parker, of Peoria, seriously hurt; Wallace Robinson, of Peoria, badly injured; Mrs. I. W. Grant, of Peoria, dangerously; Mrs. P. Crass, of Washington, Ill.; Mrs. May Lass; Arthur McCarthy; James Blair; Joe Hatton, baggage master, of Peoria; Jesse Meeks, of Eureka; Mrs. Buckett, of Forest.

Among the Peoria excursionists on board were the following: Miss Mary Morris, William Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Regan, Mrs. P. F. Valentine, Joe Neal, wife and baby, Edward E. Putney and wife, Mrs. Phema Frehm, Miss Lizzie Jones, Mrs. W. M. Allen, Mrs. James Deal, Mrs. William Ball, J. E. Dechman, Adam Schemberger, Miss Jonnie O'Sheughnessy, Miss Adair Webster, Charles Webster, Edward Compton and wife, Miss Mary McVey, Mrs. John Murphy, Mr. C. S. Doty, Mrs. Garretson, Lewis E. Rotterman, G. A. Smith, A. N. Morton and wife, Robert Kennedy.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING.

A Man Slips Over Niagara and Hangs On the Edge an Hour.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Lying close to the brink of the Horseshoe falls, beyond old Terrapin bridge, visitors to Niagara may remember seeing a big rock. Between this and the bridge are three logs. J. F. Neville, of Montreal, yesterday morning told his friend, Peter Harkness, that he was going to walk out on the logs to the rock if he perished. He made the venture. After going out some distance on the logs, which are covered with green slime, he slipped off and fell into the rapids. Instantly he was carried under the logs and dashed against the third log head first.

Though somewhat stunned he caught hold of the log and hung on, with his feet projecting over the brink. He was able to hang on until he had fully recovered his senses, and then, by a superhuman effort, drew himself along the log until he secured a footing. His comrade started for assistance. A harness was procured, taken to pieces and the straps buckled together. A noose was made and thrown over Neville's shoulders, and with a teamster's help the young man was drawn to a piece of safety, after hanging at the brink of the falls for an hour.

Trouble Anticipated.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 12.—Marshall Gross has advertised for sale $50,000 worth of property levied on in Taylor county to satisfy a judgment of $18,000 in the Federal court in favor of holders of bonds issued on a railroad subscription. The date set is August 21. No buyers will appear except ex-Marshall Hunter, of Bardstown, who has been hired by the bondholders to bid. Several shipments of Winchester rifles are said to have been made to Campbellsville, the county seat, for citizens of the county. They never will allow Hunter to take possession of the property he may buy. They submitted to the marshal's levies, but when the representative of the bondholders comes they will more than likely kill him. A strong effort is being made to compromise before the day of sale.

A Thankless Female.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 12.—On the 4th of July Albert Vincent risked his life to save Miss May Alruft, who was in imminent danger of being run over by a team. He swung the lady out of harm's way, but was knocked down and trampled upon by the horses. He was without money, and was lying at the point of death for several weeks. Abandoned by all his friends, he was compelled by his landlord to leave his room, and was yesterday found lying in a tent on Gillis street. His leg was mortified below the knee, and he was almost in a dying condition. He was removed to the city hospital, where the leg was amputated. The young woman and her relatives have done nothing to aid him, and have not even been to see him since he was injured.

St. Louis's Fatal Fire.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12.—No more bodies were recovered from the ruins of the Bishop & Spear fire. The injured firemen are doing well. James O'Brien, a spectator, was injured by the falling wall and is at the hospital dying. The dead firemen were all men of note in their profession. Chris Hoell originated the Pomper corps and invented the belt and scaling ladder. He had spent much time in other large cities in introducing the ladder and in instructing firemen. He had saved many lives directly and his invention saved many hundreds.

Destructive Forest Fires.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 12.—The forests adjoining the city are all on fire, and farmers are busy fighting fire and taking care of their property. The Wabash road, which runs through Little River prairie, are experiencing great trouble getting their trains over the road between here and Roanoke station, ten miles west. All of their passenger trains have been delayed from two to four hours getting over the prairie, and the grass up to the ties is on fire. The fire department has gone to the west end of the city to control grass fires that endangered the bridge across the St. Mary's river on Main street.

Antidote Worse Than the Poison.

DETROIT, Aug. 12.—A crowd of 500 was at Center park last night watching the efforts of two doctors and several policemen to save the life of Charles Tegler, twenty-four, who had taken morphine with suicidal intent. Tegler was stripped nearly naked and while being walked about was whipped with wet towels and a barrel stave. The people watched the proceedings as if it were a show and volunteered to do the licking. Tegler will have the satisfaction of knowing that the crowd saved his life, even if they did it for their own amusement.

The Hoodlums Sentenced.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Ex-Commissioner Lynn entered a plea of guilty to conspiracy in Judge Jamieson's court this morning and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000. The prisoner received his sentence calmly and appeared to be perfectly satisfied. Ex-Chapman Klehm was the next on the list, and he was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000. Mr. Grinnell recommending him to the leniency of the court. An immense crowd was present in court.

UNION LABOR CONVENTION

THE NEW YORK PARTY CHAMPIONS PROTECTION.

Proceedings of the Convention at Rochester—The Cincinnati Platform Adopted With Amendments—Henry George Motion Frowned Down—Nominations.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 12.—At noon Chairman Junio, who was selected last night, repped for order and asked the further pleasure of the Union Labor party convention. The entire morning, up to this time, was occupied in completing plans whereby business could be hurried through. Up to the hour of opening the session the leaders asserted that the selection of state officers would be left entirely in the hands of the delegates. The committee on resolutions reported in favor of the Cincinnati platform, except the plank referring to the tariff and to pauper immigration. James R. McKelvey introduced the following tariff plank.

"RESOLVED, That we as a body of men representing the workmen of the state of New York condemn the efforts made during the last congress to reduce the tariff on articles made and manufactured in this country. We demand in the interests of our manufacturers and artisans that a protective tariff be maintained by congress for the further advancement of our interests, and we demand the abolishment of the internal revenue."

This resolution drew forth an active discussion and the presentation of an amendment by David Healy, in which the reference to the abolishment of the internal revenue system was omitted.

The resolution referring to pauper immigration is as follows:

"WHEREAS, The constant tide of immigration to this country threatens to result injuriously to the social condition of the nation and interfere with the opportunities of our present population of skilled and unskilled laborers in securing employment; and

"WHEREAS, There are now tens of thousands of men throughout the nation who cannot obtain employment, therefore,

"RESOLVED, That we demand of the government a more stringent enforcement of existing laws governing emigration, prohibiting the importation of contract labor, and further, that it is the duty of congress to enact other protective laws by which there will be an imposition of an increased tax or other means of stopping this tide of immigration and the flooding of the country with foreign laborers."

"RESOLVED, That all discriminations by employers against lawful associations of employees to secure their rights violates the constitutional rights of the citizen and should be declared a felony."

The tariff plank in the Cincinnati platform was adopted, with the amendments of McKelvey and Fealy, and the plank compelling a label to be placed on all prison contract work. A motion was adopted to appoint a committee of fifteen to wait upon the United Labor party at Syracuse, August 27, with full power to unite on the state ticket, but to insist that all candidates be in sympathy with protection to American industry. A proposition to designate the Union Labor party as the Henry George party was strongly opposed. Mr. McKelvey's announcement that he "recognized no men as a God" was applauded by the convention.

A resolution "That the laws against the employment of bribery, force or intimidation to secure nominations or elections to public office be rigidly enforced" was adopted. Another resolution against class legislation, whereby a poor man should be allowed to enjoy his beer at his saloon with the same freedom that a rich man enjoys his wine and liquors at his home or club, was tabled.

The convention then proceeded to nominate candidates for state offices. The following named were nominated: For secretary of state, Orville Preston, of Hornellsville; for state treasurer, John J. Ryan, of Brooklyn; for comptroller, Asa Clepp, of Ithaca; for attorney general, Lawrence McFarlan, of Lockport.

Boy's Neck Broken By a Fall.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 12.—Harry Herrgen, aged fourteen, the son of George Herrgen, a driver, living on Depot street, near Eighth, the water boy of the Favorite Carriage works, came bounding out of the factory at Eighth and Depot, on an errand, and ran along the edge of an excavation in front of the building, regardless of obstructions. Suddenly he lost his balance and fell headlong into the cellar just being dug out, some fifteen feet. He struck on the side of his head, and it is believed his neck was broken, though he was alive when he was reached by the bystanders. He cannot recover.

Hoodster Official Almost Murdered.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Aug. 12.—At Petersburg, Pike county, last night, a desperate attempt was made by Thomas Coleman, a prominent farmer, to assassinate J. W. Abbot, one of the county commissioners. Coleman fired several shots at Abbot, but fortunately none of them took effect. The trouble grew out of a lawsuit. Coleman was arrested.

ARE WE INSULTED?

A Lot of Ale Stowed by a British Minion on an American War Ship.

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 12.—An incident occurred on board the American war ship Richmond this afternoon which, in view of the present relations between the United States and Canada, causes considerable amusement. Several hundred bottles of ale were being placed on the ship, having been just taken out from the shore, when License Inspector Mackenzie suddenly put in an appearance and seized it. The charge is that the ale was purchased from a city victualer who had no license to sell liquor. He accommodated the war ship with what was required because he had supplied her with provisions while in port. The officers of the Richmond are involved in no trouble, but if the charge against the victualer is proven he will be heavily fined.

Much interest was manifested here to-day on the publication of a dispatch from Ottawa, stating that the officials of the fisheries department had confirmed the report that English warships were to be sent to the Gulf of St. Lawrence to assist Canadian fisheries cruisers in the enforcement of the treaty and Dominion laws. The report has not resulted in any change of program on the part of the former vessels, which sail to-morrow afternoon for Bar Harbor, Me. The rather sudden departure of the United States ships for the Maine coast is regarded as significant, following, as it does, so soon after the recent letter of Secretary Whitney to Admiral Lucas.

In a State of Turmoil.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 12.—Sevier county is in a turmoil, and excited citizens have burned in effigy Attorney General Jones. It all arose through the report that attempt is to be made to collect "county scrip" issued in 1864. The amount of the scrip is $425,000, and it was issued for dependent families of Confederate soldiers during the war. The scrip was issued when Henry C. Pride was sheriff, and taxpayers of Sevier county allege that Pride already has collected the debt the scrip represents. They pronounce the attempt to collect it a fraud, and will resist to the point of shooting, if necessary. Parties in Chicago and elsewhere are interested in the case, having purchased the scrip years ago. Attorney General Jones is counsel for the interested holders of the paper.

The Damage to the Rice Crop.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 12.—Reports are coming in as to the disaster to the rice crops in Lower Carolina by the recent freshets of ten days ago. Fifteen thousand acres of rice on the Carolina side of the Savannah river have been almost totally destroyed. Augusta and twenty miles of the interior are for the third time under water this season. Very little rice on the Savannah river will be saved, and 15,000,000 acres on the Ogeechee and 5,000,000 on the Altamaha are threatened, but not yet lost. In the immediate vicinity of Charleston there has been no loss, and it is believed that fully one-half of the rice product of the state of 500,000 barrels of rice has been lost.

Fishermen Shot Down Like Dogs.

TALKEE, O., Aug. 12.—A terrible massacre occurred Monday night at Cape Charles, in the lower part of the eastern shore of Virginia. Fishermen from the Rappahannock river, after drinking freely, got into a fight with citizens, which the town militia attempted to quell. He was knocked down several times by one of the fishermen, and in revenge opened fire on the unarmed strangers. Several citizens joined in the firing and many of the fishermen were wounded. The others fled to their boats and put out into the bay, carrying with them all the wounded except five, who are now dying.

Struck By a Freight Engine.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 12.—The Journal's Merinette, Wis., special says: Hugh McDonald, aged twenty-three, and Ed. McDuff, same age, of Peshtigo, while driving home from Solis' circus last night, were instantly killed, as was also their horses. They were crossing the Northwestern railroad, one mile from here, when their rig was struck by a freight engine. They are both unmarried and their relatives live in Canada.

Death of Mrs. Eliza Kinlock.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Mrs. Eliza Kinlock, the mother of Mrs. John Drew, the actress, died at Long Branch, N. J., this morning, aged ninety-one years. Mrs. Kinlock was formerly an actress. Just a few days over sixty years ago she made her American debut at the Walnut street theater this city, and from that time she filled an important place in the dramatic world, up to 1855, when she retired.

Latest Kentucky Election Returns.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 12.—Official returns from all counties in the state except Adair, Jefferson, Jesseamine, Knott and Union give Buckner 127,363, Bradley 114,574. These counties in 1884 gave Cleveland 15,757, Blaine 11,414. The pollbooks in Jesseamine county, which gave Cleveland 1,134 and Blaine 971, have been stolen, and that county will probably not report.

THE WIND-UP.

The State Meeting of the Christian Church Closes After a Successful Session.

The Delegates Delighted With Maysville's Hospitality.

The annual meeting of the Christian Missionary Society closed last evening, and the delegates and visitors took their departure to-day.

McGarvey upon "The Work Among the Colored People," and also an address by Elder Moffett upon "Missionary Outlook in the South and West."

He spoke in very earnest terms of the great need of this college in that country. At the conclusion of his address the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this convention endorse Brother M. W. Green, of Australia, and his mission to this country and heartily commend him to the sympathies of the American brotherhood.

Elder M. C. Kurfess, of Louisville, in a brief address, presented the claims of the Christian Widows' and Orphans' Home upon the churches of the State.

A collection amounting to $139.25 was reported for the mission school (colored) at New Castle, Ky.

The Committee on Ways and Means recommended the raising of $10,000 for the prosecution of the work next year. The following amounts were apportioned to be raised by the churches in Mason County:

Maysville.....	$200 00
Mayslick.....	100 00
Hensley Creek.....	75 00
Washington.....	10 00
North Fork.....	5 00

At night there was a song service led by Elder Hopkins, of Louisville, during which the Lexington Glee Club delighted the audience with some favorite selections. Elder George T. Smith then gave his experiences as a missionary in Japan. He exhibited a number of interesting Japanese relics to the audience. At the conclusion of his remarks a collection was taken for the mission work in Japan but the amount was not announced.

The sum of $516 in cash and pledges was raised for the Christian Widows' Orphans' Home at Louisville.

Financial agent B. F. Clay was authorized to pay the expenses of the Lexington Glee Club while here.

At 10 o'clock the convention closed with prayer and benediction by Elder Shouse, of Lexington.

Laying The Track.

Captain Collier put a large force of hands—about one hundred—at work yesterday morning laying track for the new railroad. The work was commenced at Lexington Street, Fifth Ward, and a point near the upper end of Chester had been reached last evening—about half a mile.

THE COMING FAIR.

Everything in Tip-top Condition and the Stables are Filling up With the Racers.

A representative of the BULLETIN visited the fair grounds this morning, and to say they are in tip-top condition is no more than the truth. Everything is in "ship-shape" for the meeting next week, beginning Wednesday, 17th, and closing Saturday, 20th.

The judges' stand, and all the fencing and stables have been white-washed, and the old corn field—well, it is not there any longer. But in its place there is to be seen a field of beautiful green sod—a not weed on the grounds.

A nice platform is being built for the accommodation of passengers who may go out on the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad—of course everybody will have to take a ride on the new road—and last but not least we will add that the large amphitheater has been thoroughly scoured and cleaned up, something never done before. And George Rogers wants it remembered that the Floral Hall will be "a thing of beauty," if not "a joy forever." Don't forget the cut flower display on Thursday, which promises to be one of the handsomest displays ever made in this region.

In a stroll to the stables, the BULLETIN man met Albert, "the only son of the only Jew," Simons, who is on hand with the "flyers" Ema C. and Scott Newman, "housing" them up for the races. Further on Mr. J. Conley, of Briar Hill Stock Farm, near Lexington, was found with Wildbriar, a swift pacer, and several other racers in fine trim. Mr. George Hays, of Frankfort, is here with six Onwards, and he says this is Onward's year. Mr. T. C. Jefferson arrived last night from Lexington with a stable of five fast trotters, and Messrs. H. C. Litter & Son, of Falmouth, are expected to-day with six more. As our scribe was leaving, Dick Young yelled to him: "Don't you forget it. I will be in that four-year-old trot. And look out for Enterprise and Alcandre a little later on—they are coming round nicely."

Esther Lyons.

Miss Esther Lyons and her splendid dramatic company will fill a week's engagement at the opera house beginning next Monday night. An exchange says: "Miss Esther Lyons has during the past five years traveled through the United States, Canada and England, and the press and public everywhere have been unanimous in their praise of the wonderful, beautiful and talented young actress, and pronounced her the most immediate and artistic success wherever she appeared. Miss Esther Lyons has this season, the same as during her previous successful one, surrounded herself with a powerful and competent company of artists. The costumes that will be worn by Miss Esther Lyons during her engagement have all been imported from Paris and will arouse enthusiastic admiration from all, as they are the most fashionable both in quality and latest Parisian patterns, which she has purchased at an enormous expense. In addition to the grand dramatic and comedy company, Miss Esther Lyons carries a mammoth brass band and orchestra, which will positively appear at each performance."

Prices 15, 25, and 35 cents. Seats now on sale at Taylor's.

Mrs. LOUIS SCHATZMANN has opened a boarding house in the building adjoining Yancey & Alexander's livery stable on East Second street. The tables will be furnished with all the market affords. Rates reasonable. A share of the patronage of the public solicited. t16

The trial of the gang of negroes charged with riotous conduct at Washington on election day is still in progress before Judge Ooons. The evidence for the prosecution was finished yesterday afternoon. Three of the defendants, Nat Langhorne, Henry Whaley and Henry Mason, were discharged on motion of the Commonwealth.

A MOONLIGHT fete will be given next Tuesday evening at the Minerva Seminary by the trustees of that school, assisted by the young ladies and gentlemen of the neighborhood. Proceeds for the benefit of the seminary. Good music. A spacious platform for dancing. Ices and sweets in variety for the inner man. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

PRES TYLER was found dead in a room at a boarding-house in Newport Tuesday morning. He retired the night before in his usual health. Congestion of the brain was the cause of his death. His remains will be interred at Germantown. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Marion Toile, of this city, and of Thomas Tyler, of Germantown. He was well known here, and his friends will regret to learn of his sudden death.

Shackleford's Pharmacy.

Most attractive store in town—in "Cox Building." Fine old wines and liquors for medical purposes. Pure drugs. Toilet articles in great variety.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MINNEVA.

Rev. Albert Nichols has returned from Russellville, Ohio, where he assisted in a protracted meeting.

Big moonlight fete next Tuesday evening, August 16th. Remember Minerva never does anything by halves.

Misses Lizzie and Blanche Kearns, of Portsmouth, O., and Miss Green, of Augusta, are visiting Miss Mollie Jeunings.

Miss Lizzie Cox, of Maysville, is visiting Miss Bette Donovan.

Emmett Politt, of Tollesboro, is visiting friends at this place.

Will Mitchell, our next school teacher, is in town soliciting scholars and forming acquaintances with our people.

Miss Minnie Gregson is visiting friends at Moransburg.

Moonlight fete next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Margaret Staton died Monday night of consumption. Her remains were interred in the M. E. Church burying grounds Tuesday evening. Mrs. Staton was a kind, christian lady, and leaves many friends to mourn her death.

Charles A. Bradberry, our worth Constable, is busy riding all the time. He sports a stand-up collar and a white tie. Bosen is a good officer, and good order will be preserved at our moonlight fete next Tuesday evening.

RECTORVILLE.

Miss Ida Richards will conduct the public school at this place for the ensuing term, beginning September 1, 1887.

J. S. Mavly will teach at our neighboring village, Stringtown, in Lewis County.

The heated term, the camp meeting and the good-looking girls have nearly depopulated our village of the rising young voters. Bradley and Buckner combined can't draw our young men from home like Betsy and beauty can.

Republicans and Democrats crack their jokes on each other in the best humor seen after any election for many a day. The uncertainty of Buckner's majority for a few days added largely to the amount of fun which the boys have picked out of the reports.

Mrs. Sallie Kirk, wife of L. E. Kirk, of this place, died of consumption, Tuesday 9th, after a painful illness of seven weeks. The deceased was a grand-daughter of Archie Hall. She leaves several small children and an affectionate husband to mourn her loss. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the bereaved husband. The remains were interred at Mt. Olivet, after a funeral discourse by Elder Morrison, on Wednesday morning.

L. G. Auxler is now at Mt. Sterling demonstrating the application of his business motto, "Business before pleasure." Mr. A. talks of selling his landed interest at this place and locating elsewhere. We shall be sorry to lose such a public, enterprising citizen from our midst, and one whose encouragement of the educational interests of this section is upheld by the observation of our school edifice and its furniture, which he so fully contributed to secure, and for which he made memorable campaign of June, 1887. His business relations with the people, conducted more especially by Archie Gardner as office man, have been the most amiable and satisfactory. Many poor men will miss the helping hand of L. G. Auxler when he is gone. May success attend him whithersoever his lot may be cast.

Notice to Exhibitors.

Persons desiring space in the Floral Hall for the display of articles during the fair next week must apply to George W. Rogers, at the hall, Monday or Tuesday.

A SENSATION IN PARIS.

THE STRAINED RELATIONS BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY.

An Anti-German Organization in Paris Enrolling Hundreds Upon Hundreds of Members and Drilling in the Use of Firearms—Various Foreign Affairs.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The resignation of Gen. Faidherbe from the French Patriotic league, owing, as he alleged, to the recently changed attitude of the organization, has created a sensation in Paris. The Patriotic league, being distasteful to an anti-German organization it is not easy to see in what respect any recent action of the brotherhood could have offended any one whose allegiance to the Rhenish party was unshaken, and the natural inference is that Gen. Faidherbe has been induced to modify his anti-German views by some pressure not apparent to the public, or else has made the discovery, without having the fact pointed out to him, that he is not so strongly opposed to Germans and Germany as he has believed himself to be.

One of the reasons alleged for his resignation is that the league committed itself to the party advocated for years by M. Katkoff, in sending messages of condolence to the family of the dead Russian editor, and following them up with a vote of sending representatives of the league to be present at the funeral; but in what manner this action conflicts with the unwavering anti-German attitude the league has occupied from the date of its organization to the present time is not altogether plain. The leaders of the league express no regret at the general severance of his connection with the organization, and are enrolling hundreds upon hundreds of members throughout France daily. Meetings are held nightly and more activity is observable in respect of perfecting members in the use of firearms than at any previous time.

The Boulanger-Ferry affair has ceased to be a live topic in social, political and official circles, but the interest in the incident has not died out among members of the league, who believe that Ferry was afraid to meet Boulanger, and by refusing to do so has forfeited the respect of all patriotic Frenchmen. It is contended that such men as Ferry do more to belittle France in the eyes of Germany than anyone can possibly imagine, and the assertion is commonly put forth that France will never again be treated with proper respect by Germany until Boulanger is recalled to the war office with a ministry of his own choosing.

The action of Gen. Boulanger in tendering his condolences to Mme. Katkoff has greatly increased the enthusiasm of the league for his return to power, and the enemies of the commander of the Thirtieth corps unhesitatingly assert that he waited until the league had tendered its sympathy before his own in order to score another point in the game he is playing with the popularity of the masses as the stakes. The patriotic league is a powerful organization, and Boulanger is its idol. Whether the idol will ever call upon his worshippers to follow him across the German border remains to be seen.

Cholera on the Increase.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—It becomes more and more certain every day that the ravages of cholera in southern Italy promise to be very heavy this year, and there are but few who think that it will be confined to its present limits. The official returns from Catania for the month of July give 604 deaths. Some days ago the French papers announced that the disease had made its appearance in Naples. The announcement called forth an unqualified official denial, but now the lamentable truth is admitted, and it is officially announced that six deaths occurred Tuesday in Resina, a suburb. The authorities still adhere to their original statement that no cases have appeared in Naples proper, while, however, admitting that there have been many suspicious cases of fever greatly resembling the Asiatic scourge in its external symptoms.

Bulgaria's New Ruler is Plucky.

SOBODA, Aug. 12.—Prince Ferdinand resumed his journey to Sofia, the Bulgarian capital, at 3 o'clock this morning. The prince sent a note to the powers yesterday, stating that he would assume the functions of prince of Bulgaria without their consent, because opposition was directed solely to the form of his election and not against himself personally.

Blaine Visits Queenstown.

CORK, Aug. 12.—James G. Blaine visited Queenstown yesterday for the purpose of making a tour of that place. He called at the American consulate, and Mr. John J. Platt, the consul, being absent he left his card and returned to this city. During his stay in Queenstown he was wholly unrecognized.

Crespi Criticized.

PARIS, Aug. 12.—The Radical newspapers here violently criticize the pro-Bismarckian policy of Signor Crespi, the new Italian premier, and urge France to ally herself firmly with Russia, by doing which, they say, she will be enabled to despise the central European alliance.

Shot By His Wife.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Dr. McDonnell, who, with his wife, was shot at the Briggs house last night, is reported to be in a favorable condition this morning, and shows signs of rationality. He occupies a bed at the county hospital, and the physicians in charge are somewhat hopeful, the signs of inflammation which were visible last night not having matured. It is said their marital relations have been severely strained of late, and it is alleged by friends of both that the wife's insane jealousy led to a series of quarrels, of which this is the culmination. Dr. Larkin, Dr. McDonnell's brother-in-law, visited the hospital early this morning, and to him the injured man confided that his wife shot him. Dr. McDonnell is the fourth husband of the lady.

Angry Because Her Life Was Saved. OWENSBORO, Ky., Aug. 12.—Mrs. Lida Hapden, of Rome, this county, took a dose of morphine yesterday and was only saved by the prompt action of a physician. On regaining consciousness she upbraided him for interfering. This is the third time she attempted suicide.

Burned to Death Near Toledo. TOLEDO, O., Aug. 12.—The house belonging to Christian Lutz, near Ironville, burned yesterday afternoon and it has since been learned that Lutz went into the house intoxicated just before the fire and probably perished.
